

PAID INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY AT EUROPE'S LEADING HOTEL PROPERTY BROKER, VALUER AND ADVISOR

Company Overview

Christie & Co is a successful, expanding company providing professional advisory and brokerage services in the hospitality real estate sector. Established over 80 years ago in London, we offer our services from 30 offices in Europe. As a premium brand within the real estate sector, we are proud of the quality of our customer relationships. We are convinced that it is due to our high demands to the professionalism of the people working at Christie & Co, that we are able to offer such high-value business services. Many top-class industry specialists work for us – and they offer a plethora of expert knowledge. Renowned project developers, banks, private equity firms, international hotel operators, real estate investors and many more trust Christie & Co as a partner in consultancy and transactions services regarding hotel real estate.

For our international offices in London, Paris, Madrid, Barcelona, Munich and Frankfurt we are constantly looking for students with a passion for hotel properties who want to get to know our working methods and range of consultancy services. The duration for our internships are from min. four months to max. six months, depending on the office you are applying for.

Responsibilities

As an intern you will be a fully incorporated member in one of our small local teams. You will assist our hotel experts in various consultancy and valuation projects in their respective regions, including areas such as:

- Site and market analysis, feasibility studies, rent assessments, commercial due diligence etc.
- Valuation reports of hotels and hotel portfolios following international RICS standard methods of valuation
- Coordination of research projects
- Tracking hotel real estate transactions across Germany
- Continuous expansion of the national research database
- Assist any other member of the hotels department from other lines of services when required (Brokerage e.g. with the writing of Information Memoranda)
- Assistance within PR work (e.g. research publications and presentations)
- Administrative tasks

Your Profile

- Passion for hotel real estate, experience in hospitality is of advantage but not essential
- Open personality with excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- Operating efficiently and self-sufficiently within high standards with attention to detail
- Analytical skills with an affinity for numbers
- Excellent knowledge of German and English
- Excellent knowledge of MS Office

We will especially value that you are perceptive, curious and motivated, have a strong interest for hotel real estate and are able to build relationships with colleagues and clients likewise.

Take the chance to get to know a fascinating professional field and become a part of the Christie & Co team! Please send your detailed and meaningful application to:
